

IACME-letter

A newsletter for IACME members

July 14, 2006

A Record-Setting Spring Meeting

IACME thanks all that attended our Spring Education Meeting, "Hot Topics in CME," on June 23, 2006. Meeting registration was the highest ever at 100. Members who were not able to attend are welcome to download the PowerPoint slides presented at the course.

Mark your calendar for the IACME Fall Education Meeting, November 10. The meeting location and program will be available soon.

Largest IACME Membership Ever!

Our organization now stands at an all time record of 171 members! Thanks for being part of one of the largest regional organizations for CME professionals!

A special thank you to new members since the June 23rd meeting:

- Kelly Bishop, American Society for Clinical Pathology
- Terry Frederick, Medical College of Wisconsin
- Becky Harris, American Society for Clinical Pathology
- Diane Heidcamp, Our Lady of the Resurrection Hospital
- Karen Klein, Translating Technology for Healthcare
- Shannon Lyde, Peer.Point Medical Education
- Mike O'Donnell, Medical College of Wisconsin
- Christy Prahl, American Society for Clinical Pathology
- William Snovell, Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company
- Gary Stroner, Abcomm, Inc.
- Jay Wagner, American Society for Clinical Pathology

2006-07 Board of Directors and Officers

George Beranek, MD passed the presidential gavel to Greg Paulos, MBA, IACME's 2006-07 president at the Spring Educational Meeting on June 23, 2006 at the Stonegate Convention Centre in Hoffman Estates, IL. Greg also holds an officer position on the Board of Directors with the national Alliance for Continuing Medical Education serving as secretary/treasurer. Greg is the professional education officer for the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy located in Oak Brook, IL. Ed Dellert, RN, MBA of the American College of Chest Physicians now serves as president-elect, and Mellie Villahermosa Pouwels, MA takes the spot Ed vacates, IACME treasurer.

IACME members elected Randy Estes, MExtEd, Alexian Brothers Hospital Network, and Erik Johnson, American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons to the IACME Board of Directors. IACME Directors serve a staggered to year term and may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms. Full list of IACME leadership.

"Education, Collaboration, Fellowship, Networking"

www.iacmeonline.org

Terry F. Hatch, MD, Recipient of IACME's Highest Award

Terry F. Hatch, MD, of Carle Foundation Hospital, Urbana, IL was the fourth winner of the Thomas G. Pearson, EdD, Distinguished Service Award, announced at the Spring Education Meeting on June 23. Dr. Hatch was selected as the 2006 recipient for his energy and dedication to CME, his role in local and national CME governance, his willingness to mentor others, and his volunteerism with IACME. Congratulations Terry! More information about the Award.

Ask the CME Expert

Do you have a burning CME question that you'd like fielded by IACME leaders or other members? Send your questions to Communications Committee member Phillip Puckorius and we will post the answer in an upcoming IACME-letter and online.

Tell us what you think!

We hope you enjoyed this edition of the IACME-letter. The IACME Communications Committee appreciates your comments and feedback.

For IACME information, job opportunities, CME resources, and past editions of the IACME-letter, visit: www.iacmeonline.org

You can help promote the IACME by forwarding this message to your colleagues. To be removed from this list, please reply to this message with "Remove" in the subject line.